

THE MIDDLE AGES IN SPAIN AND FRANCE

Private host

I'm Igor, and I will take you to discover the medieval history of the villages.

Spain is a country rich in history, where some of the most remarkable medieval buildings have survived the centuries, standing as if time had paused. We will explore the northeast of the peninsula, from Teruel to France, discovering small walled villages with humble homes, grand houses, majestic castles, fortifications, and towers. A journey into another era, where the most authentic experiences await.
